

All In Men VirtuApril Meet Up #4 April 28, 2020 w/ Pastor Matt Hall

“What are the odds I’ve interpreted my life accurately?”

Recap

Week 1: “Who am I?” In Christ, we are Beloved Sons of the Most High, made in His image!

Week 2: “Where am I?” We need to be alert to the the spiritual forces at work behind physical circumstances. As residents of “two realms,” we get to partner with the Holy Spirit to grow physically, emotionally, and spiritually.

Week 3: “What is the good that God is up to in my life?” God gives us practical good for our lives that should be celebrated, and He also brings transformational good in our lives that will last for eternity.

Week 4’s Main Idea: All of us receive wounds in life that act as lies do. We often allow these wounds and lies to shape how we see and live in life. Christ came to set us free from these lies!

Scripture: Luke 22:32 (NIV) Jesus said - “But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”

Small Group Guide “What are the odds I’ve interpreted my life accurately?”

1. Briefly share two memories from your upbringing that stand out today. They can be good or bad ones – a story you love to tell or wish you could forget.
2. Can you identify a wound you experienced or a lie you were given that has shaped how you see the world and live life? If so, describe it and its effect?
3. Are you “beating yourself up” over a sin that God has forgiven and forgotten? What keeps you from forgiving yourself when God already paid the penalty for that wrong?
4. What daily action can I take to focus on God’s destiny for me and not my deficiencies?
